Our two resident hounds, Ava and Stinky Stan, are usually very well behaved. Please do not encourage them to beg at table, or feed them. They do actually get fed, despite trying to convince you otherwise. If they are being a nuisance, please tell us. Likewise, please let us know if you have any allergic reaction or intolerance to any foodstuff. Our food is prepared in a kitchen packed with deliciousness such as gluten, milk, tomatoes, meats and we, and only we, know what has gone into each dish...
